

AS ALWAYS, A GOOD TIME AND GOOD GOLF WAS ENJOYED IN CADILLAC
AT THE WESTERN MICHIGAN WOMEN'S FOUR-BALL

June 20-21, 2015

By Pat Shelton

Compared to past years, the field was rather small (ten 2-woman teams), but those who participated all enjoyed the golf, camaraderie, prizes, gifts, weather, food and drink at the Western Michigan Women's Four-Ball held June 20-21 at the Evergreen Resort (formerly McGuire's) in Cadillac. Jane Cook continues to shine as a hostess supreme, and Kevin Shamrock, the golf pro, and his staff couldn't have been more accommodating and friendly. Traditionally there is a contingency of women from the Grand Rapids area and a group of Michigan Women's Golf Association (MWGA) members and friends from the metropolitan Detroit area, and my, we do have a good time together!

If you missed the 2-day tournament this year or have not yet attended, do make a point of putting it on your 2016 calendar of the weekend of June 18-19, 2016. If Jane is able to hold the price to $135 again next year, it's extremely reasonable for 2 days of golf, cart, a Saturday box lunch, Sunday awards dinner, hostess gifts and gift certificate prizes for all teams. Even if she has to raise the price, it's still a wonderful weekend. A special price for accommodations at the resort will also be available, which includes a super breakfast buffet each day.

There was some excellent golf as noted in these results:
