In Memory of Susan Bairley

July 15, 1953 – June 25, 2018

A Memorial Service was held on Aug. 3, 2018 for Susan Barley, who was a staunch supporter of Women’s Golf in Michigan. She was a journalist and wrote for the Michigan Golfer Magazine in the late ‘80s. She wrote stories about the MWGA when we first began in 1986 and the US WAPL Qualifiers we conducted and our players who played in the US WAPL Championships. She wrote about the GAM Women’s Championships. In the 90s, she was chairman of the Michigan Women’s Golf Summits when we brought in Carol Mann and Kathy Whitworth as speakers. It was her idea to have a Legacy Celebration for Mary Fossum, Betty Richart, and Shirley Spork. We raised a lot of money for the Girls Golf Program and the EMU, MSU, and U of M Women’s Golf Teams, while honoring three great women in Michigan Golf. She and her husband Paul started the Shirley Spork Endowment Fund for the EMU Women’s Golf Team, which now exceeds $100,000. She also wrote for Michigan Golfer Online and the A Position. She was a great friend and a woman of love, leadership, and purpose.
